

Age Idioms Quiz

1. What does the idiom "no spring chicken" mean?

- a) A person who dislikes chickens
- b) Someone who is no longer young
- c) A person who loves springtime
- d) Someone who raises chickens

2. If someone is "wet behind the ears," they are:

- a) Young and don't have much experience
- b) Someone who just took a bath
- c) A person who is very smart
- d) Someone who is getting old

3. When we say someone is "getting on in years," we mean they are:

- a) Having a birthday party
- b) Learning to count better
- c) Getting older
- d) Moving to a new house

4. What does "as old as the hills" mean?

- a) Someone who lives on a mountain
- b) A person who is very, very old
- c) Someone who likes to climb
- d) A person who studies rocks

5. "Bright young things" refers to:

- a) Shiny toys that children play with
- b) Young people who are smart and excited about life
- c) Light bulbs that are very bright
- d) Stars that shine in the sky

6. If something "bridges the generation gap," it means:

- a) It builds actual bridges
- b) People of all different ages can enjoy it
- c) Only old people like it
- d) It's only for young children

7. What does "tender age" mean?

- a) When someone is very gentle
- b) A time when people feel sad
- c) When someone is very young

d) When food is soft to eat

8. If you are "young at heart," you are:

- a) Someone with a healthy heart
- b) A person who acts youthful even if they are older
- c) A young person who is kind
- d) Someone who exercises a lot

9. When someone says they are "over the hill," they mean:

- a) They climbed to the top of a mountain
- b) They are old and past their best years
- c) They live on the other side of a hill
- d) They are very good at hiking

10. What does "come of age" mean?

- a) When someone learns their age
- b) When a person becomes an adult with grown-up rights
- c) When someone has a birthday
- d) When people come to visit you