Treasure under the Sea

Dr. E. Lee Spence is a well-known underwater explorer. He found his first shipwreck when he was only twelve years old. He still looks for shipwrecks today and he sometimes finds coins, gold, and silver. He is also a famous underwater cartographer. This means he draws maps where he finds the shipwrecks and treasure. He explores every ocean and writes books about his experiences. He spends a lot of time researching the history of shipwrecks. In this way, he finds out about where the ship might be, where it sank, and what it was carrying. Dr. Spence still lives an exciting life and continues to look for mysteries under the sea.
